ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.
E. E. JOHNSON.

UNFORTUNATE CONDITIONS.

The attention of everyone is now turned to the unfortunate conditions prevailing at Whitwell, and the questions are repeatedly asked, who is to blame and why has it not been remedied? It is hard to assign any reason, but it is the culmination of continued lawlessness, which should have been checked by wholesale arrests, if it required the deputization of every law-abiding citizen in the county to make them. The wonder is that it has not been a great deal worse. Of course the union, as people contending for a right, will receive the whole blame, but that remains to be proven. The presence of the militia will, no doubt, restore calm. We feel that time will prove that union miners are not at fault and possibly the company officials have done all they could, but there has been a laxness somewhere, and the parties who have been guilty of this laxity are fully as culpable as the perpetrators of the outrages, union or non-union.

CAMP CARLTON, DUNLAP.

Special to the News.
Mr. Editor: If you will give me space in your valuable paper I will try and give you a few facts from this place. The health of this community is very good. Camp Carlton is located on the Hill road six miles west of the thriving little city of Dunlap and near the noted Carlton Springs, also within a few yards of Land's Chapel. The camp is occupied by a party of surveyors who are locating the T. C. I. & R. Co. lands. Our chief engineer, Gov. M. E. Deakins, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks at Delphi. The Gov. says he is for Senator Carmack coming and going. Dr. Fred Stevenson, our modest and polite front chairman, is visiting home folks and calling on the fair sex at Whitwell. T. B. Griffith, better known in camp as the "Senator", is greatly interested in raising dogs. He will advertise his dogs and pups before long. T. S. Clemens, our jovial and genial axman, says he thinks Carmack will make a better race in Texas and Mississippi than in Tennessee. Tom got this idea from Ed's literature. The party fears they are going to loose their handsome rear chain-man, R. D. Layne, judging from the fact that he is using a great deal of stationery and complaining of cold feet. He accounts for doing so much writing in this way: That he is advertising for a combination sewing and cooking machine. Prof. S. E. Shoup, engineer of the party, was present at the close of school at Land's Chapel last Friday and addressed the school with a very impressive lecture. Prof. J. C. Boyd's school closed Friday after a very successful term of four months. The reporter was informed that Prof. Boyd has taught the best school they have ever had at this place. Our chief cook, Mr. Frank Nussboun, lay aside the cares of the kitchen Friday and went out to enjoy the exercises of the last day of school. The program failing to consume all the time they had, Mr. Frank consented to address the school. He has traveled a great deal, both in the United States and Europe, and from what an intelligent man can gather from such travels, it wouldn't be surprising to say all were proud of having heard him. Miss Jennie Byrd is visiting friends at Land's Chapel. Miss Lizzie Lockhart visited friends and relatives here last week. Jas. Hennessie and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hickey. Ask Miss Willie Lockhart if she would like to have one of those pictures she was looking at. Quite a number from this place took in the show at Dunlap Friday. The genial B. T. Hickey is ever ready to accommodate his comrades and wait upon the ladies. He is very desirous to have Mr. Carmack to introduce some special measure on the matrimonial law for the special benefit of old bachelors. Rob Roy.

Obituary.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pickett and took from them their little two-year old baby, Jimmie, but weep not, loved ones, little Jimmie is not dead, but asleep in our blessed Saviour's arms. We will miss you, little Jim, yes we will miss you. We loved you, yes we loved you but God and His angels loved you best. Little Jimmie leaves a father and mother, five sisters and three brothers to mourn his loss. He was loved by everybody but he was too good to stay in this sinful world. He was only a little flower budded on earth to bloom in Heaven. We know it is hard to give up a loved one but God knows best. That little place is vacant that never can be filled by little Jimmie any more. He was laid to rest in the Pickett graveyard Thursday, Oct. 26. Rev. Shirley conducted the funeral service. Farewell, little Jimmie until the resurrection morning.
One Who Loved Him.

PETROS.

Special to the News.
While news is this neck of the moral vineyard is scarce, I will try to jot down a few items.

We are now in the midst of the yellow leaf season and the eternal rock-ribbed sides of Old Brushy mountain are beautifully clothed in a dress of varied colors that the brush of the most celebrated artist cannot correctly paint. Although we are in the yellow season of life the forest today presents to our eyes a scene that is indescribably grand but in a few short days those beautiful scenes will be fast fading away and the bleak winter, with its chilly blasts, will soon be upon us with icy grip.

Well, Mr. Editor, the people of Petros certainly admire the stand you have taken in regard to unionism of different trades and they have manifested their admiration by sending you a liberal subscription list and I hope other union camps, that have not already done so, will follow suit.

Work on the concrete walls of the power house of the B. B. Coal & Coke Co. is progressing nicely and, if the weather will permit, will be completed in a short time.

I see in the issue of the News of Nov. 2, an article written from Whitwell under the nom-de-plume of "Jolly". Now if he is the man we think he is, he was here last spring and he could make a merchant of this place feel as jolly as he feels by calling upon the Dutchman and paying for some necessary raiment wherewith to clothe himself and make himself respectable. Come, Jolly, if you are the man, settle up before you accuse any union man or men of being dishonest. The Dutchman wants his money.

As to keeping Morning Glory warm, I don't think he will need any coal for the News is keeping him pretty hot.

Some miscreant last night cut down the tent belonging to the photographer. Such parties should be taught to dig coal under the management of Warden Gammon, an official of the State. The people of Petros condemn such acts.

The Sunday schools of both the Methodist and Baptist churches are well attended both having about 150 enrolled.

The Big Brushy Coal Co. is having their large store house remodeled and the improvements have materially added to the convenience and appearance of the building.

Yesterday was pension day and quite a number of the gray-haired veterans of Morgan county were in town. Morgan county has a goodly number of veterans.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; no cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Have Best Quality Soup.

Editor News: I will write a few lines to the News replying to Jolly, a correspondent. "Jolly" you said the frost hadn't got "Morning Glory." You have to keep him in a warm house for he has run himself to death and has got to be taken care of. Where does the T. C. I. Co. get the coal to keep him warm? Their men don't get it out.

You said Thursday was soup day. It sure was and we had a good time. Don't you wish you could have a good time with us but you can't you know.

We sure have good soup. Come and get a square meal for you haven't had one since you went to scabbing. My father was a true blue union man. He has been dead 29 years and I have nine boys and they are all true blue union boys. I don't want when they are dead for anybody to walk by any of their graves and say, "There lies an old scab." Thank God they will never say it. "Jolly," are you not choked on winter huckleberries? If you need a dose of calomel let me know at once. We sure have plenty of John Mitchell's grub, too. If you had some of it you would be able to get out more anger dust and would holler, "Christmas" every day.

WHITWELL.

Special to the News.

As everybody and the cook has been writing up some very interesting articles to your valuable paper, if you will permit a small space in your columns I will drop in a few local items this week.

A good show passed through the valley and stopped off at Whitwell. They had first class order, the best record for the town for ten months. There was not a drunken man to be seen. W. H. White was a special policeman for the day and the large body of people is credited with good behavior. John R. Barker's barn and all the contents burned to the ground Monday night, with all his hay, corn, harness and saddles. His son, Will and wife had left the barn 15 minutes before the fire occurred. It is believed by some that, as the son smoked a great deal, that his own carelessness was the cause of the fire, as a blood hound couldn't trail anyone.

The Jim Crow law didn't, by any means, apply inside of the show, tents as there wasn't any separate seats prepared for the accommodation of the colored people. G. W. White has a contract building abutments to the culverts on the pike. Will Cantrell moved in his home in South Whitwell to go to house-keeping for the first time in his life, and his neighbors said he kept them awake very nearly all night beating, hammering and thumping around, trying to fix up for business. There have been three deaths here this last week from typhoid fever. A small row occurred here Sunday night between several parties but no serious injury was done. If any writer knows anything of the whereabouts of "Nip & Tack's Pay" please write me a card and you will confer a great favor on a friend. We have just learned here that the little barn of Chas. Ashburn, which stood up on the river two miles east of town, was burned one night this week, containing about 200 bushels of corn. The particulars are not yet known. We have just received notice that Morning Glory is not frost bit and dead as reported, but saved by fire. We noticed the Editor of the News in town Saturday and are glad to note that he has not been drummed out of the county yet.

Special to the News.

Scab and union fussing seems to be the order of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Coffelt and little daughter, Effie, of Missouri, have been visiting relatives here for the past three weeks. Miss Minnie Hamilton of Roopie, Tenn., is attending school here. Misses Lillie and Lula Lamb, Myrtle, Pearl and Ruth Connon, of Victoria, took in the show. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Jordan, of Victoria, were seen driving through town Sunday eve. Misses Ethel and Velda Simpson and Maggie Bowden visited the Misses Hudson's Sunday eve. Miss Nola Mosier, of Victoria, was in town shopping Saturday of last week. A crowd of young folks went through Smyth's Cavo Sunday eve. They were Misses Florence Jane-way, Bessie Hooper, Minnie Hamilton, Mary Jordan, Messrs. Lafayette Hudson, Lige Ridge and Clay Kelly. All report a nice time. Misses Eunice Hutton and Mand Friend, of Victoria, attended the show here Saturday. Miss Violet Bowden visited friends at Victoria Saturday and Sunday. Miss Pearl Coffelt, of Missouri, is visiting relatives here. Fauntleroy, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Peeney, has been very low with whooping cough. There was quite a lot of shooting Monday night which caused the death of Clark Robinson, who lives on the side. The shooting was about midnight and Mr. Robinson was killed in his bed. He leaves a wife and twelve children to mourn his loss. It was a horrible, cold-blooded murder. We need some deputies who can keep order. It seems that just now a person is just about as safe out doors as in. We hardly know what would be justice for the one who killed this man, but there was so much shooting about perhaps no one will ever know who did it.

Rev. Sanders preached Sunday at the Hall.

Mrs. Arthur Slatten died Friday night and was buried Sunday at Red Hill.

W. C. Hill, of the News, was in the city last Saturday but did not take in the show.

There were some irregularities here Sunday which cost the parties on one side, five dollars a-piece.

J. H. Harris, manager of the Whitwell Mercantile Society went to Jasper Tuesday of last week on business connected with the Society.

Mrs. J. M. Stewart and Miss Myrtle Sherrill, of Cowan, were in the city Thursday and Friday, the guests of their sister-in-law and aunt, Mrs. Susan Bull.

The show was here Saturday and exhibited at 2:30 but did not exhibit at night. The street parade was a small feature, somewhat like the one last week in Chattanooga. It only lacked one mile and seven-eighths of being two miles long. They left Sunday morning for Jasper.

WANTED.

WHITWELL.

Special to the News.

I will write a few lines to the best paper in the county. As it is the first time I hope it won't reach the waste basket.

I will try to answer a few objections raised against the union men. I am a union man myself and I have been ever since the union has been organized at Whitwell. I worked at that place before the union came there and I drove a mule there for 80 cents per day and I have driven since the union has been there and the least I got was $1.35 per day. Anybody can see what good the union did.

If things run on like they are now you will see what the scabs will be getting six months from now and it will be this: "If you don't want what we see fit to give you you can get your tools and go home, if you are out of debt with us. We want you to go and come and be sure you don't fool away any time."

Well, my son, Jolly, you said that the soup-suckers couldn't get anything else to eat but soup beans. I tell you if you were to eat a meal at a union man's house you would go around hollering, "Christmas gift."

Mrs. Josie Perkins is on the sick list this week.

Quite a number visited the Cheek graveyard Sunday.

Mrs. Dave Farmer was very sick Sunday.

Edgar Shadrack lost his baby the 2nd of this month, and it was carried to the mountain for interment.

Joe Perkins is going off Monday and Pete Farmer is going with him to some point in Alabama, and may the Lord go with them for they are union men, all wool and a yard wide.

W. L. Colter is going into the stove business next week.

A. Tatam is working on the stable for Dykes & Northcut.

Wash Turner and Mark Brown were in Whitwell Saturday on business.

Would love to hear from "Aunt Lettie" this week. She is right. Hurrah for her.

Ask that man who came out the other day on account of water in his room what they were going to allow him for it. Nothing, of course.

Will ring off by saying goodbye to the union men.

LOONEYS' CREEK.

Special to the News.

Gathering corn is the order of the day. Hazel, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Condra, is very sick with fever. James and John Pickett took dinner with J. D. Holloway Sunday. Misses Carrie Thomas, Angie Pickett and Florence Pickett spent Sunday with Miss Lillie Powell. The many friends of Robert Powell were glad to greet him back once more from Chattanooga. Misses Lillie Powell, Carrie Thomas, Florence and Angie Pickett took in the show at Whitwell Saturday and reported a nice time. Ask Robt Powell if he got tired shaking hands with those girls Sunday. Maynard Powell makes a trip every other day to the mail box. W. H. Powell spent Friday night with his brother, F. Powell, near Red Hill. E. D. McIntire, of Whitwell, called on J. D. Holloway Sunday. Homston Powell spent Saturday with Willie Holloway. Foster Powell and Tom Layne escorted their best girls through the show Saturday. Blue Eyes.

Bilious Attack Quickly Cured.

A few weeks ago I had a bilious attack that was so severe I was not able to go to the office for two days. Failing to get relief from my family physician's treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man.—H. C. BAILEY, Editor of the News, Chapin, S. C. These tablets are for sale by Jas. W. Simpson, Jasper, Tenn.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Law and Order, or What?

Editor News: The price of a job of work here at Whitwell now is the surrender of the rights that justly belong to the laborer. A company has no more moral right to refuse a man work because he belongs to the U. M. W. of A., than if he belonged to either one of the leading political parties, or any other organization.

The State and nation each grant charters to the miners' organization, this being a fact, it is not proper to style those who belong to this organization as being a lawless element and an immoral communion, but such is daily being perpetrated, and ostensibly in the name and pretensive spirit of law and order. I have heard criticisms rendered against the promiscuous shooting by the non-union men at Whitwell, and heard answers from their sympathizers expressed in this language: Well, it was not the union, and it don't amount to anything. Of course its all right for a non-union man to shoot, but all wrong for a union man to fire a gun.

I hold that a non-union man is just as amenable to the law as a union man.

Yet on one occasion in the town of Whitwell we had several union men prosecuted for shooting when the proof showed, when investigated, that the company's employees did shoot numbers of times over into town where innocent citizens lived and some of their houses were struck, whereas, on the other hand, there was no proof of anything except promiscuous shooting. It's law and order for the company's armed representatives to fire into people's houses, and very immoral, indeed, for anyone to criticize it. It is law and order for the company to furnish their employees guns and charge them on the book without some of their solicitations. This has been done for the negroes of Whitwell and we have been practically under this kind of guard.

The past record shows that these people are not held amenable to the law, for this town is full of proof of pistol carrying and other violations of the law. Further, men have been refused admission to our grand juries who knew these facts and who still know them. But, of course, law and order will excuse them in the future as in the past.

This reign of law and order keeps imported into this town such men that will sell whiskey on our public highways and will even go into business houses and solicit its sale, and yet the citizens of this town are enjoined from interfering with these privileged characters, and this is called and styled law and order.

But this is the tactics of heartless corporations to exercise all the freedom granted them by law and then violate and transgress upon the law in their stubborn efforts to deprive working men of all their rights under the law, and when this is accomplished the corporation becomes monarch of all it surveys.

These corporations and their agents say the principle of union is all right but that it is not carried out right but when they demand their aid to help carry out a good principle they refuse, and show themselves just as antagonistic to the principle as they were to the way it is carried on. Don't lend your ear, sentiments, will power and muscle to the hired agents of the T. C. I. Co., for they don't believe themselves what they say.

Remember that the promise is to the faithful, and that the victory in this struggle will go either to the union or the T. C. I. Co., and that there is no victory for the non-union man. If the company wins this fight it will reap the reward, for President Don M. Bacon has said, "If the company can win this fight the profits to the company will be incalculable." If the union wins this fight they will not pay the expense and will receive a living wage. There are three cudgels mainly used by a corporation to whip labor, and I will name them in their order, viz: To engender strife between workmen, to set up starvation among the people and to prevent the enforcement of the law.

One of these elements in this case has been eliminated, and that is, starvation conditions. John Mitchell has more money today than when this struggle began, so there is no hope for the company that they will have the help of starvation conditions.

Strife among the workmen they have set up, but with no success as a means to an end.

The perversion of the enforcement of the law they have set up in more ways than one. They have the injunction in force which the Supreme Court has styled "illegal and unjust," and they have cried out for the soldiers at Tracy City when about all the disturbance was a nervous sheriff. The soldiers were found useless and returned to their native heaths.

Now, as a means to an end, the injunction will not dig coal, the soldiers have not, and if every man in their employ carries a gun as large as a sheep leg, it will not dig coal.

Instead of abusing the non-union man I would rather persuade him from becoming the company's slave and from surrendering to the T. C. I. Co. his liberty and rights.

The company's agents say: "This is a free country," and so it is. There never has been a time in modern or ancient times; in a republic or a gross monarchy—when men did not have the right to surrender, in fact, a monarchy is noted for the enforcement of this right. This is the right the T. C. I. Co. would have you exercise and call it freedom. This is the freedom they would have all men, both union and non-union, to exercise.

Instead of surrendering just remain away from the mines and let time, the union's cudgel, work the problem, for all elements and things material are changed by the erosion of time.

If the sore is let alone and not irritated the wound will unite and when entirely well the scar will be invisible and the organ or limb will have its normal powers and benefits, but if you irritate the sore the scar will be ghastly, and the organ or limb will be weakened and will not have its normal powers and benefits and your powers will have vanished, and the rising generation will feel the effects of your weakness in the labor world.

Reason should guide all workmen in their acts. All the southern states are prosperous because of the advance of cotton. Prosperity in every branch of industry comes as a consequence of high priced cotton, and we all are delighted and benefited, both saint and sinner, both union and non-union, because cotton is high priced. And the reason of this, the cotton growers have organized and held their cotton, until it brought a living price. Just so with the working man, he should hold his muscle (and John Mitchell has the money to help him) until the demand for it will bring a living wage.

God created the muscle of man, and gave it to him, together with a faculty of reason to govern it. Muscle is the workman's capital and when he won't hold it for a good price, he is a cheap man and dishonors his own condition. One says, "Has not the company the right to run their own business?" Certainly they have, but have not the laborers the right to hold that which is his for good price? Because the company holds the right to run their own business is no argument for a workman to surrender his rights as a workman, whether union or non-union.

The farmers in all this land by organization, should put a price on everything they raise and make that price high enough to live and make their next crop.

We, as a people, have to carry out our own destiny in this our own civilization and when we expect disinterested parties and law-making powers to accomplish our prosperity, we will find in the future too much repetition of the past.

Let us quit listening to men who are hired to talk. When talk comes from a man who is hired to talk, where a job and employment depends on his talk and how well he talks; you may observe how well he performs the task—not his duty, because manhood, duty and humanity would make a three-linked chain, and these links are not always within the breast of a subsidized personage.

Let love, hope and charity guide those who are battling for righteousness, country, home and fireside. And those who are trying to crucify labor, God forgive them for they know not what they do.

May the Lord award the victory to the faithful, as is taught in Holy Writ.
